FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

The railway share market was unusually dull this accusing, but in the afternoon it became more active and abor buyyant. The tamoreus of the appointive feel. oyant. The tameness of the speculative feeling in the face of the prevailing abundance of money at his centre is a source of surprise to many, and there is a growing disposition to buy among outside investors as from the control of the bear, who have ruled it for the hest half year and more. Of late the mar-hes has been remarkable only for its indebeing as much afraid to sell as the bulls are the indications are that when a decided change does take place it will be in favor of higher prices. The prospect of abundant crops, and the probability that no further contraction of the currency will take place for nd, and loans are made freely to stock houses in good dit at five per cent, with exceptions at four and six cent, while first class commercial paper, of which s is a very moderate supply, is in demand at from to seven. The statement of the associated banks tes the easy condition of monetary affairs here, deposits show an increase of $4,613,760, which is y explained by the increase of $5,057,413 in specie, after being due to the disbursement of the semi-al interest on the five-twenty lean. The leans have increased $2,806,271, mainly owing to purchases of government securities by the banks for the rake of employing idle capital, and the legal tender notes have decreased $2,590,639, by payments into the Sub-Treasury. The circulation shows the training increase of $22,122. The totals of the present

A BARBER IN TROUBLE -Patrick Flynn, residing in Huntington, L. I., arrived in this city on Saturday evening, and the following morning, wishing to disguise himself by having his hair dyed, proceeded to the shop of Louis Kioges, near the Battery and as he says engaged the barber to perform the operation for the trifling sum of twenty-five cents. Flynn was highly pleased with himself on the creaters. of twenty-nee cents. Flynn was highly pleased with himself on the conclusion of the job, but when he came to pay the bill he was not a little astonished to hear the knight of the striped pole demand the sum of $1 instead of twenty-five cents as agreed upon. Patrick perceptorily refused to satisfy the demand and a wrangle ensued, during which, it is alleged, Kloges caught hold of and assaulted him. The barber was brought before Justice Dowling yesterday morning, and insisted that $7 was the price for dying hair. He was held to bail to answer the assault.

n DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, was yesterday arrested by officer Leaycroft, of the Tombs Police Court, on the complaint of Mr. Wm. F. Ford, doing business at No. 85 Pulton street. Mr. Ford charges that on the 7th day of April, 1865, the accused, then in his employ, feleniously embezzled and appropriated to his own use the sum of $45. The accused denied his guilt and was held in $1,000 bail by Justice Dowling to await the result of an examination. The accused, whe a few days ago was arrested on a similar charge, denies his guilt. He claims to have been in partuorship with the complainant, and in this capacity had a right to take the money.

LARCENT FROM TUR PRESS.—A man giving his name.

LARCENT FROM THE PRISON.—A man giving his name as Allen Napier was yesterday arraigned before Justice Dowling, as the Tombe, on the charge of assaurting Miss Dowling, as the Tombe, on the charge of assecuting hiss Maggie Wallaco, of No. 8 Huntington street, Brooklyn, with intent to steal as a pickpostet. Miss Wallace was crossing from South Brooklyn in a ferry boat, when the prisoner, as charged, placed his hand on her dress and made an effect of the reach her pocket, but failed, and who is as to boat landed on this side. Napier, previet a to have been guilty of similar assaults on the last of the side of the tombe for the support of the street, dearged Elizabeth Johnson with stealing a wallet containing $1 from the pocket of her dress while standing on the steps of $1. John schurch, Varick street, Justice Dowling sent the accused to the Tombs.

BROOKLYN INTELLIGENCE.

The NAVY YARD HONGEDS.—Coroner Lynch made arrangements to hold an inquest yesterday upon the body of James P. Malone, the marine at the Navy Yard, who was shot on Sunday night by William Fendell. one of the sentries. It was at first stated that the parties got into an altercation in regard to the ownership of a dog, while they were on guard at the cob dock, and that in a fit of anger Fondell drew a may revolver and discharged it at Malone. The ball entered the right eye of Malone, passing out at the back of the head and causing instant death. It appears now, from what can be learned, that the shooting was entirely accidental. Fondell had been firing at a mark, and had the revolver in his band, when Malone came up and commenced skylarking with him, and in the course of the scuffle the pistol was discharged. Coroner Lynch viewed the body and will hold an inquest on Wednesday next.

OFFENCES AGAISST THE PERSON IN THE EASTERN DISTRICT.—Francis Lattenville, a patrolman attached to the

The only candidates named for the position are Judge Voorhies, of Eng. as Company No. 15, and Daniel Donovan, the present cierk of the commissioners. Some such gentleman as Judge Voorhies is sadly needed 15 this commission, to look after the "ring."

WESTCHESTER INTELLIGENCE.

Yonkers has been changed from its location under the Getty House, Mechanic street, to spacious quarters in the Village Hall. Owing to the meagre accommodations and the want of proper ventilation at the former place the change has proved a source of great benefit, not only to the presiding Justice, T. Astley Atkins, from the only to the presiding Justice, T. Astley Atkins, from the unwholesome atmosphere of the old court room, but to those persons who are brought before the Court for any purpose. The report of Justice Atkins for the past year—the introductory one—has just been submitted, showing that there have been arrested for various offences during the year five hundred and eighty-two persons, one hundred and four of whom were for intoxication. The amount collected for times and paid over to the different village and county officials were $2,393, of which $1,150 was for violation of the Excise law. Civil suits have been commenced for claims amounting in the argregate to $7,169, $1,959 of the latter sum has aiready been entered upon judgment. The report concludes by stating that obedience to the law has now become a recognized principle throughout the village, and not, as formerly, an exceptional occurrence.

INTERESTING SCROOL OPENING EXERCISES AT MORRISANIA,—Yesterday afternoon the scholars of school No. 3

indies and gentiemen, friends of the cause of education, assembled at the new schoolhouse, which has at length been finished, for the purpose of taking part in the opening exercises, which were of a highly interesting character, and consisted of some charming musical selections, sacred and secular, as well as a number of declamatory productions, rendered in a manner, considering the inexperience of the performers, highly creditable both to themselves and teachers. The bird-like voices of the children in the primary department, who have been under the careful training of Miss Charlette H. Stearns, were particularly admired. The grainmar department, in charge of the principal, Mr. O. W. Lounsbury, was also favorably noticed. The members of the Board of Education, with their President, Mr. John L. Burnett, and Supervisor Cauldwell, were among those present. The school will be in full operation to-day and the register open for the enrolment of new pupils.
